

Wishing to receive authentic Buddhist teachings and guidance from a highly qualified teacher on a regular, step-by-step basis no matter where you are?

Minnesota Sakya Center
presents

DHARMA CONFERENCE CALLS
On Sunday with Venerable Lama Kalsang Gyaltsen

June 14, 21, and 28, 2009

Teaching Series: Ground, Path, Result in Mahayan Version

In this teaching series, Ven. Khenpo Kalsang Gyaltsen is going to teach about integration of two truths (ground), integration of twin accumulations (path), and integration of two holy kayas (result) in Mahayana version.

HOW TO JOIN THE CONFERENCE CALL:

From any landline or cell phone, dial 1-219-509-8222.

Enter participant access code 1013441 at the prompt.

When the teaching begins, dial *6 to mute your background sounds.

Dial *6 again to speak during the question and answer session.

COST: No charge to join the conference call;
you pay your own long distance charges.

TIME:

Sunday evening
7:00 to 8:00 pm central time

Check your time zone:

8:00 – 9:00 pm eastern time;
6:00 – 7:00 pm mountain time;
5:00 – 6:00 pm pacific time.

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF VENERABLE LAMA KALSANG GYALTSEN

Venerable Lama Kalsang Gyaltsen is a widely recognized and accomplished teacher and translator of Tibetan Buddhism. Born in Tibet, he is learned in sutra and tantra and has spent long periods in meditative retreat. Venerable Lama Kalsang Gyaltsen received ordination and advanced religious training from leaders of the Sakya Tradition of Tibetan Buddhism, including His Eminence Luding Khen Rinpoche and His Holiness the Sakya Trizin. For the past two decades, he has taught the Dharma widely in Southeast Asia and the United States. In 1986, he established Sakya Phuntsok Ling Center for Tibetan Buddhist Study and Meditation in Silver Spring, Maryland. In April, 2001, he established Tsechen Kunchab Ling Temple in Orange County, New York as the Seat of the Sakya Order of Tibetan Buddhism in the United States. Venerable Lama Kalsang Gyaltsen is also Co-Chair of the International Buddhist Committee of the Washington D.C. area, which he founded in 1987. He has also translated and published numerous Buddhist texts and rituals from Tibetan to English, and is the Editor in Chief of ChoTrin (Dharma Message) a bi-lingual publication about Sakya Order of Tibetan Buddhism.

Please invite your friends who are interested in Buddhism to join us!

Branch Center:
SAKYA THUPTEN DARGYE LING
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Questions:

(612) 801-1540

mnsakya@mac.com